Good luck in your new life vocation; of thanks for the help you gave me in the first semester of your
senior year! sincerely!
Very truly yours

The enjoyment of the memories of our school days will always be mingled with the grateful remembrance of the prayers and sacrifices of our parents. Our education began with them — in a Christian home, and it has continued throughout the past four years — in a Christian school.

We therefore present this book to our parents, our school mates, teachers, and friends, with the hope that it will preserve the memory of our fellowship at Lutheran High School for the future years.

Dear Nellie
It's been me knowing you
these last few days
I wish you every happiness
in the world. love D. M.

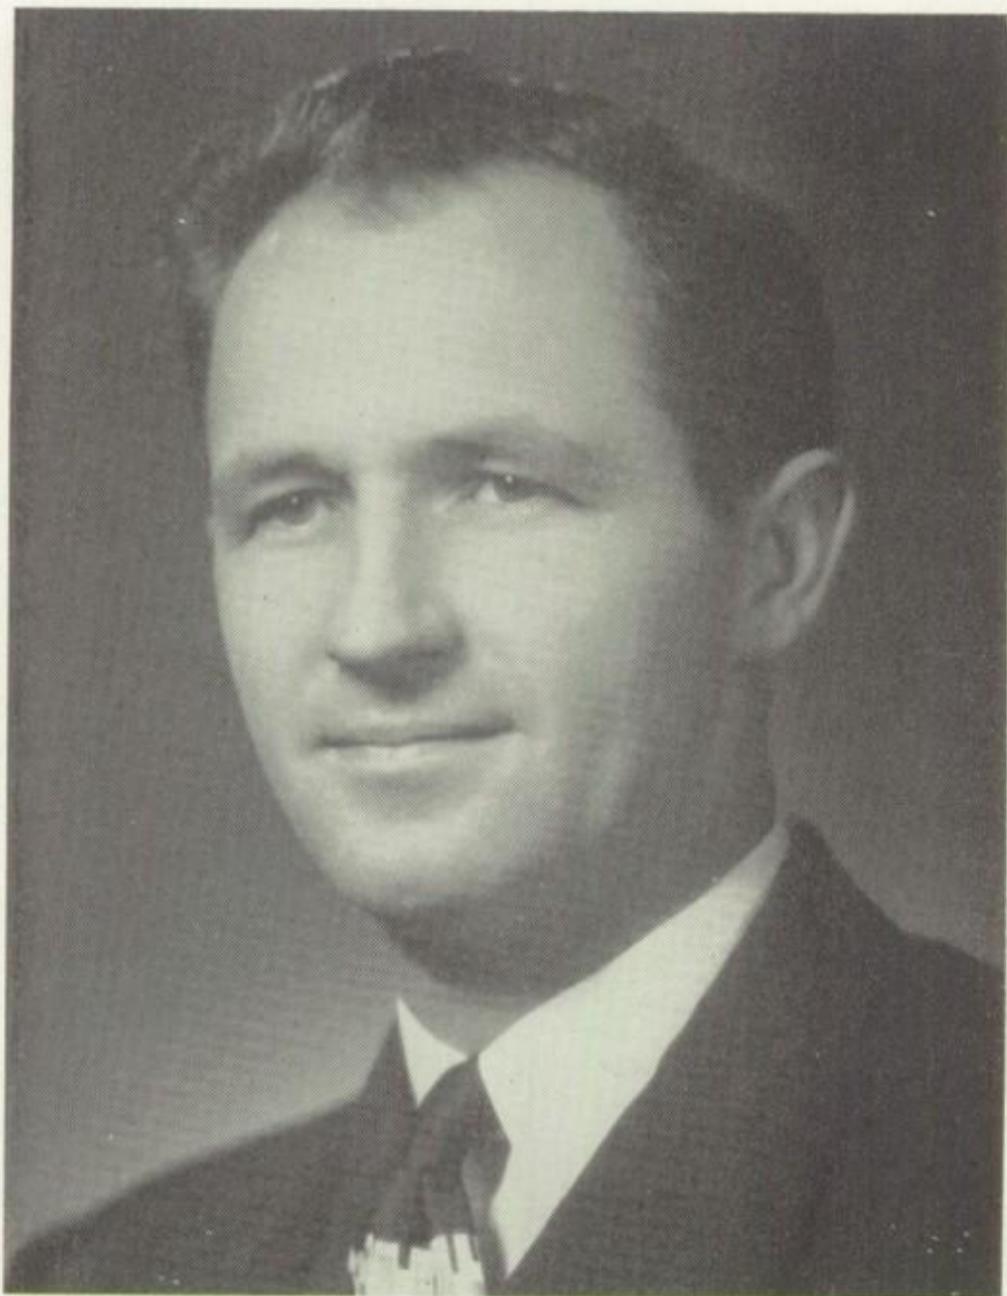

Dear Nellie

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL

This is the fourth year that Mr. E. F. Eggold has been our principal at Lutheran High School. During these years he has performed his many duties as principal efficiently.

Together with the Board of Directors, he has represented the Lutheran High School Conference in our school. They have worked hard to make Lutheran High School one of the finest schools available.

We, the graduating class wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Eggold and the Board of Directors.

VICE-PRINCIPAL

The vice-principal of Lutheran High School is Mr. R. G. Ernst. As head of the guidance department, he advises students in the choice of their vocations, has charge of program schedules, and registers new students.

We sincerely pray that God will continue to bless his work at Lutheran High.

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Seniors:

Your graduation signals the end of four happy years at Lutheran High School. You will never forget the profitable, carefree hours spent in the companionship of Christian classmates and Christian teachers. You realize all too well that a most pleasant phase of your life has come to a close. You now stand on the threshold of a new period in your life. The future stretches out before you unknown and unexplored. Although you cannot know what the long succession of tomorrows will bring, you are not in the least disturbed. You can face the veiled years ahead with serenity and hope. You can accept the mature responsibilities of the future confidently because as disciples of Jesus Christ you know that "all things work together for good to them who are called according to His purpose."

In this wonderful promise of God you are assured of God's love, guidance and help. You have the unbreakable pledge of your heavenly Father that your future is secure in His keeping; that nothing in your life will ever occur haphazardly or by chance, but that all of the events in your life will co-operate to promote your essential well-being and happiness.

May our gracious Lord who watches over you during your high school years continue to be with you and bless you.

ORGANIZATIONS

Aurora

Early last September the Aurora staff had its first meeting. At this meeting the dedication was decided upon.

After that, the work on the book was begun in earnest. There were layouts to be planned, pictures to be taken, copy to be written, and typing to be done.

The expenses connected with the publication of this book were paid for by Patron Money and subscriptions. We take this opportunity to thank the Patrons who made this Aurora possible.

A vote of thanks also goes to our adviser, Mr. Fenske. His help was indispensable in the planning and editing of this book. Also due for their share of credit are Messrs. Bartsch and Stoll. Their efforts kept the photography department running smoothly.

We, the Aurora Staff, hope that everyone will enjoy reading this book as much as we have enjoyed bringing it to you.

History Club

The History Club is the largest organization in the school, although it is restricted to the senior class. The membership this year is 142, making it the largest it has ever been. The club was organized five years ago by the present adviser, Mr. Kelling.

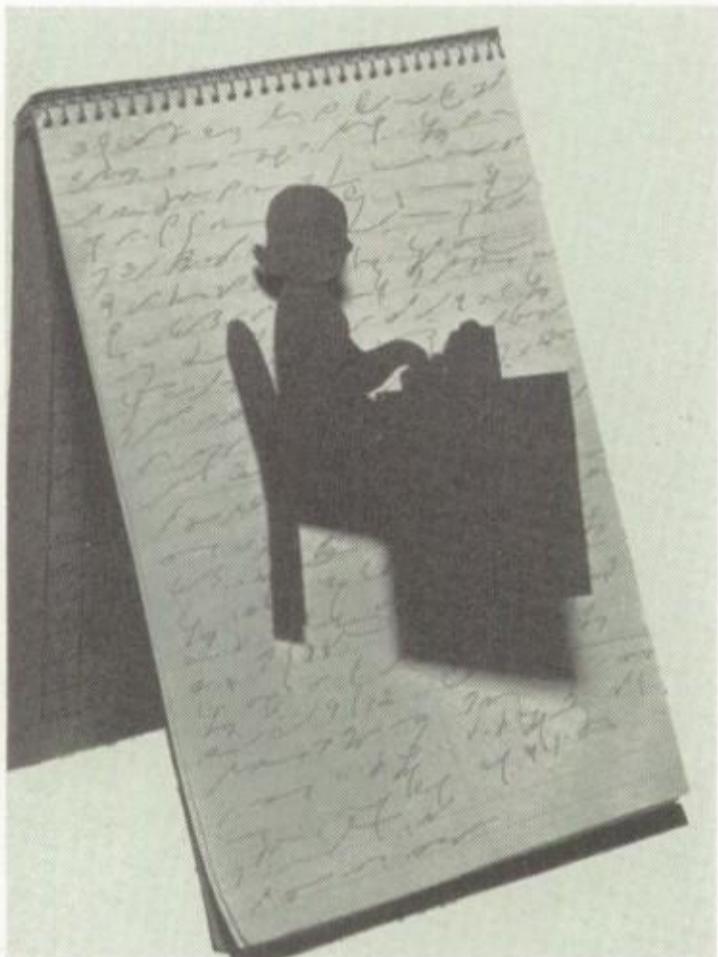

They meet the second and fourth Mondays of the month. In these meetings they see movies and slides, and hear lectures. This year the movie "Young Mr. Lincoln" was shown. All the students, their parents, and friends were invited to this meeting.

The club believes in "learning history by seeing it." In the fall they visited Wisconsin's first state capitol at Belmont, and viewed historical sights at Portage and Mineral Point.

The officers for this year were Robert Strehlow, president; Gerald Reuter, vice-president; Glen Sapienza, secretary; and Lester Baumann, treasurer.

Gregg Club

Through this organization office practice and etiquette are presented to the prospective office workers in order to give them the necessary self-assurance and help that is needed. Not only a thorough knowledge of business procedure is obtained, but pleasure is also derived from the discussions.

There are three sections in the main club. Under the supervision of Mrs. Komisarek the second and third period class elected Joanne Unke, president; Alice Hafner, vice-president; Kathryn Schall, secretary; and Nancy Goede, treasurer. Mrs. Knoll's fourth and fifth period class elected Donna Peterson, president; Jean Lippert, vice-president; Phyllis Krause, secretary; and Carol Batzler, treasurer. The fourth period class of Mrs. Komisarek chose as their officers Barbara Boese, president; Faith Weber, vice-president; Lenore Boeck, secretary; and Jean Kramer, treasurer.

The most enjoyable activity of the year for this organization was the Christmas party held in the cafeteria. Corsages and gifts were presented to Mrs. Komisarek, Mrs. Knoll, and Miss Tonn.

Student Council

The Council, operating from within the confines of a small office, is an elected group of students consisting of four seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, and three freshmen.

Some of the activities of the Council are issuing, repairing, and checking lockers; handling of all ticket sales; providing checkers, chess, and a dartball league in winter, and giving out of basketballs and softballs in spring.

Mr. Pohl is the Council's adviser this year. Last fall, two representatives went to Racine to take part in a convention of all Lutheran High Student Councils. Out of this meeting came the idea of a student court. At present, the Student Council may summon any student who violates rules of the school before a jury of Council members representing each class.

This year's officers are Glen Sapienza, president; Paul Naumann, vice-president; Theckla Brunner, secretary; and Wendell Ahlbrand, treasurer.

Top Row: Mr. Pohl, P. Naumann, A. Gruenewald, D. Claussen, J. Hartwig.

Commentator

A definite pattern is followed in organizing our Lutheran High School newspaper, the Commentator. Once a month the editors hand out assignments; reporters gather details and write up the story; the editors check the articles and hand them to the typists. The typewritten copy is then rechecked by a faculty adviser. This is only part of the job on the paper.

The Commentator is paid for by advertisements and subscriptions.

The Commentator has done much to provide a fine school spirit, and the staff has done a splendid job of making the Commentator truly worth while reading.

Dramatic Club

Anyone who has ever been in a play, or connected with one in some way or another, knows how much fun dramatics can be.

The most important activity of our dramatic club is the "big play," which this year was "Dear Ruth." Credit must go not only to the cast and production staff, but also to the new dramatics coach, Miss Betty Marbes. Miss Marbes has been the new coach since September.

At the meetings each member is taught how to stand, walk, and "throw his voice" while on the stage.

The following were the officers: James Eckoldt, president; Jack Johnson, vice-president; Barbara Lieberum, secretary; and Beverly Bublitz, treasurer.

German Club

Every second and fourth Monday, with the greeting of "Guten Abend" and a feeling of "Gemuetlichkeit," we enter the German Club.

Highlights of the club were the visits to the Altenheim in spring and at Christmas time, and the Open House, at which the German Club students sang different numbers about traveling in Germany.

The officers of the club are Barbara Bagin, president; Lonny Kraut, vice-president; Joan Moeller, secretary; and Ruth Graffenberger, treasurer. The club advisors are Miss Tonn and Mr. Gawrisch.

Latin Club

On the second and fourth Tuesdays a group of Latin II and III students attend the meetings of the Latin Club under the direction of Mr. Krause.

Here they discuss the civilization and the activities of the Romans. The entertainment and the field trips they take also apply to the Roman times.

At Open House they displayed the comparison between the old Roman school and the modern school of today.

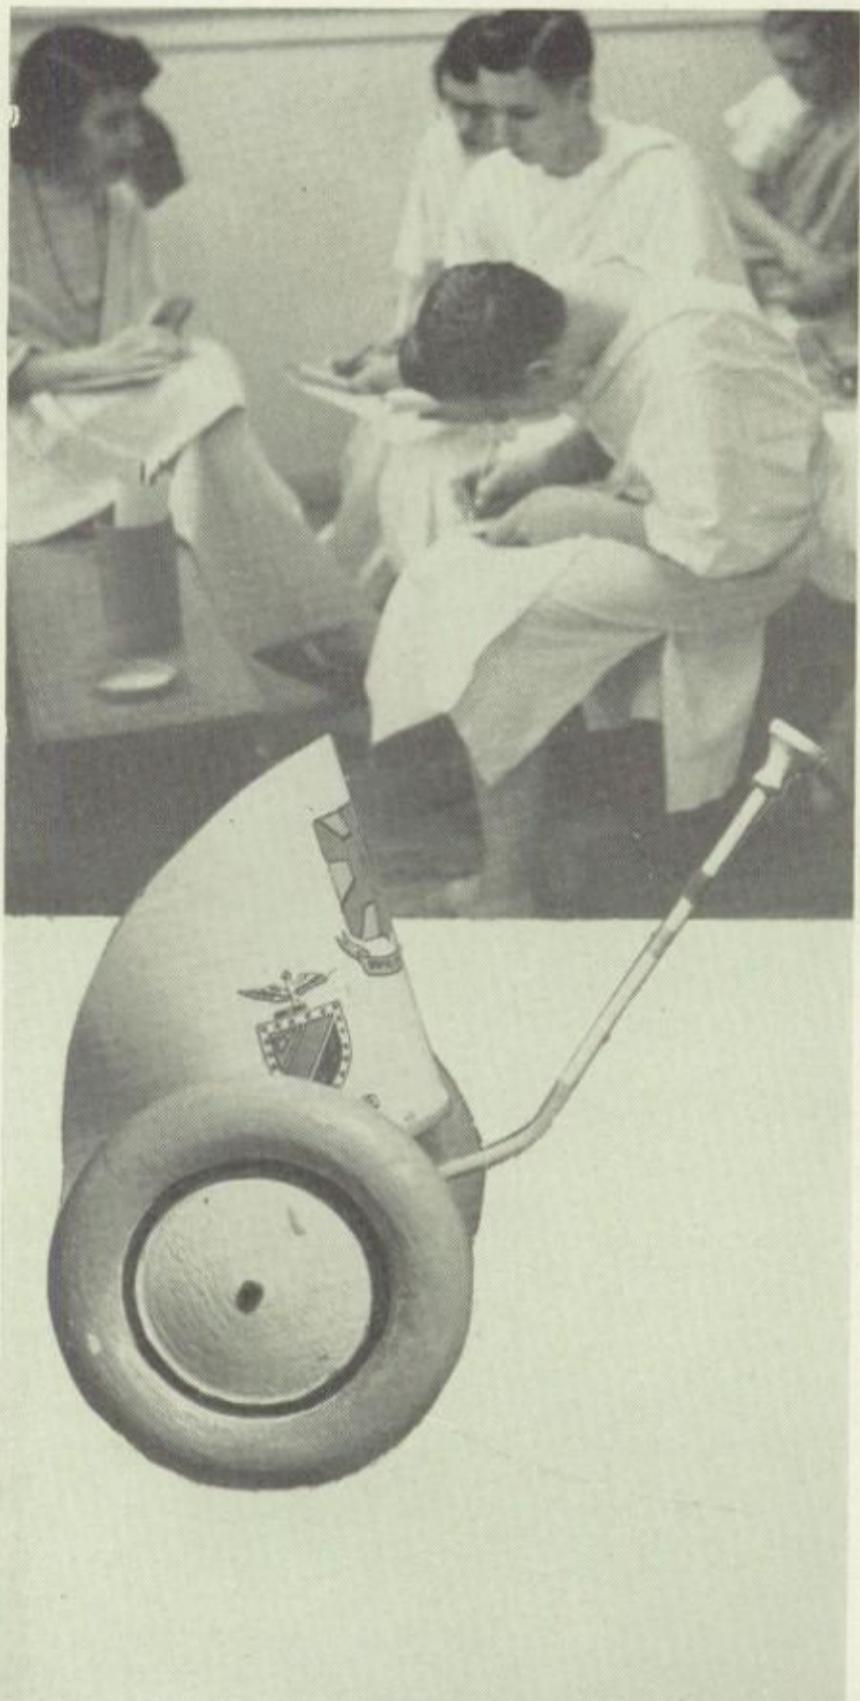

The officers of the year were Johanna Jahn, president; Tom Moede, vice-president; Carie Schultz, secretary; and Carol Kunz, treasurer.

Hi Nellie

I don't know why you want me to write something real long because all I can do is fill this paper in with gibberish.

Well anyway it was nice knowing you during these last couple of years.

I hope you'll have a lot of time next year because I'm going to try my hardest to make first string on the basketball team.

Good luck, happiness, and success as you go out into the world to face the trials and temptations.

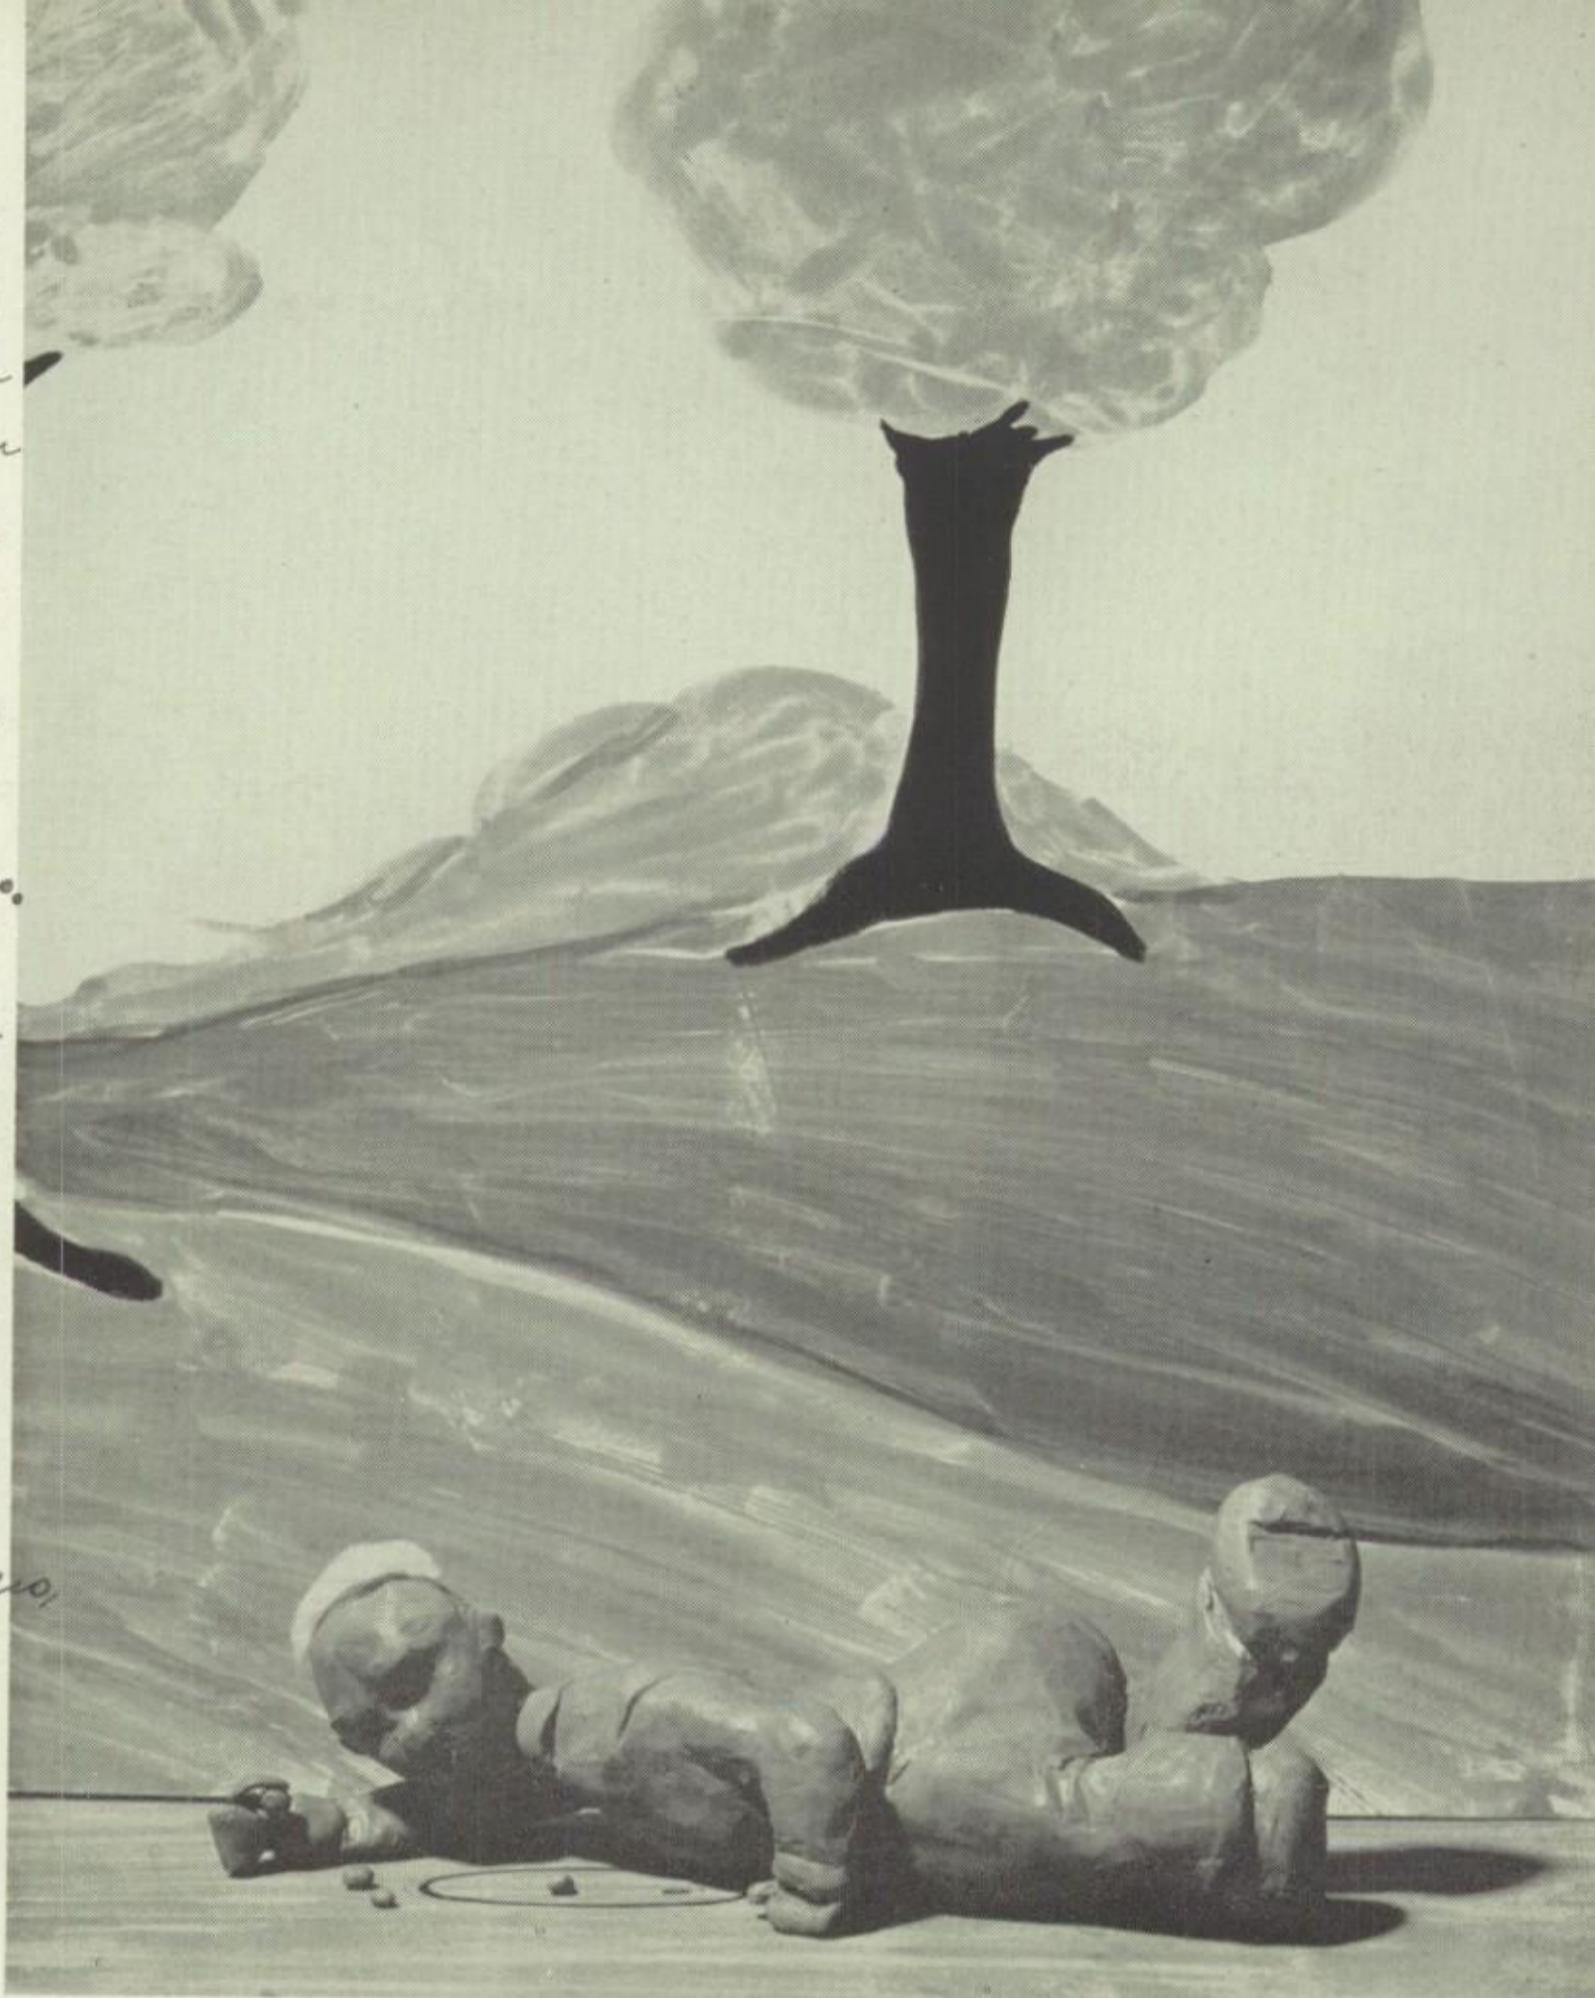

May the good Lord bless and keep you in the following years.

Maybe I'll see you around if you poke your head into some of the schools

P.S. I'll even invite you to my wedding, in maybe four or five years. That will be after I graduate from the University of Wisconsin

Football

This fall we again witnessed our Lutheran High Knights in action on the gridiron. Although they did not have an impressive record, by no means did any of the opponents consider our team a pushover.

The team was composed mainly of seniors, although all four classes were represented. The sportsmanship of the team was displayed in every game. Pat Falk did a fine job of training the boys and constructing them into a team which played each game with determination and spirit.

Lutheran's basketball team came through the season in fine style finishing in third place in Conference standings. Considering that there were only three letter-men on the squad, the boys have reason to be proud of themselves, not only for their record, but for their determination and spirit. With a little more experience and height they could have been a serious threat for championship honors.

Dear Nellie —

Here's wishing you lots of luck
& happiness. Good luck at the telephone Company (Should have capitalized telephone) We sure had some times together didn't we? Remember New Years Eve,
we sure had fun at your house. Take it easy with the busdrivers, remember, some are married. Let get together this summer. I'll see Lenore & she will see you & we can all go to the lakes or something. Remember my number is ev. 4-6456 & I live about 5 blocks from Lenore
so take a walk over someday.
(ho ho) We will have to go to the basketball games next year won't we? Maybe I will be able to get the car. Again, I wish you lots of luck & success to a swell kid.

Love,
110 Money

Hi Nellie!

Well I said, Hi!, anyway that's a start. Seems as though when the person whos took you're writing in, isn't around, you don't know what to say. Seeing as how I'm going to write so much (ahem) I'll just ~~say~~ wish you all the happiness and luck and success and good times, and anything else you deserve to have, now, at the beginning, so I wouldn't forget when I run out of space. Brother is that a mixed up sentence. Should be easy for a mixed up kid to understand. It sure was swell getting to know you (a senior at that) so well this year, through Teechie. Don't let her read this (I suppose she will anyhow) but I was kinda glad that I could talk to you when I called her up. Most of the time I didn't know what to say, so talking to you helped out a little. Don't work to hard at your new job and don't work to hard at your old one - mowing the grass. You'd better get that mower fixed so I can come out there and cut it. That's as good a excuse as any. I just got finished reading what you wrote in my book so now I'm writing in yours while I can copy some of the things you said. Here's something new. You're lucky you don't have another year at school yet. I'll really be on your tail. Nellie! What's wrong with you - always going with "the girls". See I told you I'd run out of space. Be a good girl, like always. I'll be seeing ¹¹you around.

4.5.1944 - I'm writing alone - Teechie with stomach - very sorry we not know how to
